1. Introduction

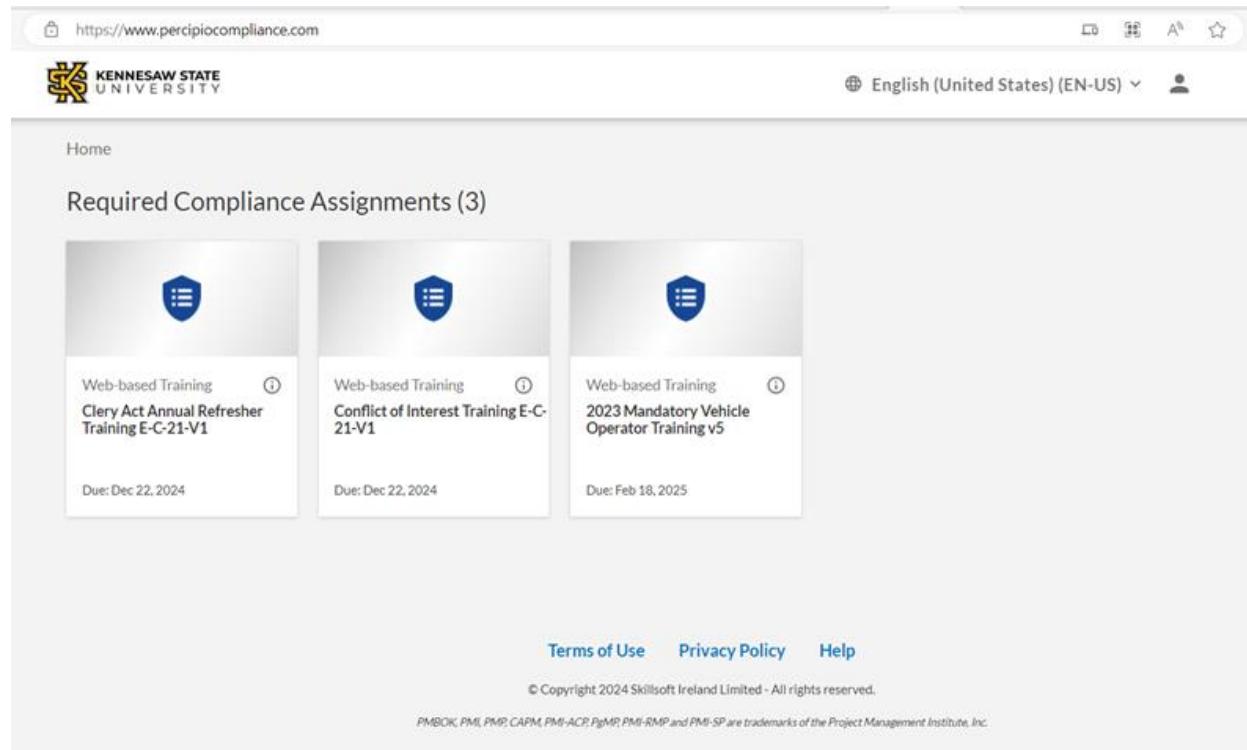

This guide is designed to help you understand and engage with the operational procedures at Kennesaw State University, specifically within the College of Computing and Software Engineering (CCSE). It will equip you with the necessary insights to ensure smooth and productive procedures. If you have questions, please reach out to the academic unit office manager and the chair/director.

2. How do I find information about...

2.1 Training activities

Everyone is required to complete the training assigned in the KSU training system by the specified deadlines.

1. Please monitor your email for notifications of new training assignments.
2. Please check Percipio Assignments
3. Please pay special attention to Percipio Compliance. It is your responsibility to complete this training before the due date.

The screenshot shows the 'Required Compliance Assignments (3)' section on the Percipio Compliance platform. Three training items are listed:

Assignment	Description	Due Date
1	Web-based Training Clery Act Annual Refresher Training E-C-21-V1	Due: Dec 22, 2024
2	Web-based Training Conflict of Interest Training E-C-21-V1	Due: Dec 22, 2024
3	Web-based Training 2023 Mandatory Vehicle Operator Training v5	Due: Feb 18, 2025

2.2 Capstone projects

This information is relevant for capstone professors and other faculty/staff members who want to initiate or help their connections to initiate a capstone project. There is a lot of paperwork involved, from student NDAs to creating marketing materials to promote this project to students. Please reach out to the Director of Partnerships and Engagements at the start of your process to help you to navigate the process, use existing resources and prevent common errors.

This is the basic capstone flow:

If you would like to sponsor a project or you were approached by KSU/non-KSU party who wants to sponsor a project, ALWAYS connect with Alla Kemelmakher at akemelma@kennesaw.edu for the project initiation and paperwork handling. For all projects (including unfunded projects), it is essential to follow the policies related to intellectual property ownership.

2.3 Contract Management

This brief presentation provides information about “contracts”: PowerPoint Presentation \(kennesaw.edu\). As indicated in this document, contracts are “any legally enforceable agreement between two or more parties”.

- May not necessarily have the title “contract”
- Not limited to financial transactions
- Contracts include, but are not limited to:
 - Letters of Agreement
 - Lecture or Performance Agreements
 - Licenses
 - Memoranda of Understanding
 - Invoices or Quotes with Terms and Conditions
 - Agreements between Kennesaw State University Foundation, Kennesaw State University Research and Services Foundation, Kennesaw State University Athletic Association and any other entity associated with Kennesaw State University

Please consult the Director of Engagements and Partnerships for any information about contracts if you are engaged in activities that involve obligations. Your chair/director must be informed and consulted in all matters related to contract management.

2.4 External Engagements

When it comes to external engagements for college faculty, especially with industry partners, several policies are applicable to ensure smooth collaboration and adherence to ethical and legal standards. Here are some key policies and references to ensure our academic heroes navigate this terrain with finesse and integrity:

What is conflict of interest? Mandatory course “Conflict of Interest Training E-C-21-V1” should be completed in Percipio Compliance

To submit a request to engage in an outside activity, or to disclose a conflict of interest, please access the Outside Activities and Conflicts of Interest Dashboard in OwlExpress.

2.6 Campus activities

It is pretty amazing how much KSU has to offer in terms of campus activities! Please discuss with your academic unit office manager and chair/director prior to ordering a video, photo, design services, print out postcards, banners and other marketing materials and even have Scrappy attend your events.

Majority of this information can be found under Student Affairs and Strategic Communications, such as:
