INDEPENDENT RESEARCH PROJECT – APPLICATION

PSYC 4404: Directed Study Capstone Independent Research Project: Course Description

This directed study capstone experience serves as the culmination of students' undergraduate experience in psychology. Under the guidance of a faculty member, students integrate perspectives and topics explored throughout their studies to conduct an original research project that prepares students for their future academic, professional, or applied endeavors. Students will apply academic knowledge and skills to develop a literature review, formulate research questions and hypotheses, apply appropriate methodologies, collect and analyze data, and communicate findings in both written and oral formats.

Instructions:

Submit this application with the required attachments to the Department via DocuSign by the appropriate deadline. Review and processing of directed study research applications generally takes 5-10 business days. If approved, you will be notified via KSU email with registration instructions.

Acknowledgment of Professional Confidentiality and Responsibility

This statement is to be signed by students serving as undergraduate research assistants in the Department of Psychological Science who may have access to student records.

Student records are maintained under the protection of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended affords students the right to have their personal information and educational records held in confidence with limited exceptions.

One exception involves directory information. Directory information may be released by the university without the student's written consent. Directory information consists of name, field of study (Major), participation in recognized activities and sports, weight and height of athletic participants, dates of attendance and degrees received. Students may deny the release of directory information by requesting in writing to the registrar that such information not be released each semester they are enrolled. When a student has filed a written request with the Registrar that his/her directory information be withheld and kept confidential, a flag will be set in Banner that causes a warning message to be displayed whenever someone accesses that student's records stating that information about this person is confidential. In that case, the student's directory information should not be released.

Although I, the undergraduate research assistant, will have limited access to student records, it is important to note that all student data is protected, in particular, students' grades, grade point averages, hours enrolled, schedule of classes, and social security number. This information should not be released to anyone, including the student's parents, without the express written permission of the student.

By my signature, I acknowledge that I am aware that the student records are confidential and that I must keep them confidential. This acknowledgement is not intended to interfere with the normal operation of my duties as an undergraduate research assistant at Kennesaw State University.

All students serving as undergraduate research assistants in the Department of Psychological Science are required to attend a virtual directed study bootcamp.
