

RUBRIC FOR SOTL MANUSCRIPT COMPLETION PROGRAM

This rubric is based on CETL's definition of SoTL, which is derived from Felten's (2013) principles of good practice for SoTL.

	Higher Priority for Funding	Moderate Priority for Funding	Lower Priority for Funding
Criterion: Good Practices of SoTL
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Inquiry Process 	The proposal describes evidence of a systematic and/or reflective scholarly inquiry process, including a discussion of the topic and research questions where appropriate. 15 points	The proposal has a limited or insufficient description of the systematic and reflective scholarly process. 1-14 points	The proposal does not describe evidence of systematic and/or reflective scholarly inquiry. 0 points
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Context 	The proposal describes the classroom setting of the project and is framed and informed by existing literature on the topic. 10 points	The proposal has insufficient grounding in either the classroom context or prior literature. 1-9 points	The proposal does not describe the classroom setting of the project, nor is it framed and informed by existing literature on the topic. 0 points
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Methodology 	The proposal describes methodology appropriate to the topic and/or discipline and is under the oversight of the IRB when appropriate. 15 points	The proposal has insufficient description of methodology and ethical oversight. 1-14 points	The proposal does not describe methodology appropriate to the topic and/or discipline. 0 points
Criterion: Project Progress	The proposal indicates that the author has made sufficient progress and will be ready to begin writing at the time of the program. 15 points	The proposal provides insufficient evidence that the author will be ready to begin writing at the time of the program. 1-14 points
Criterion: Previous SMCP Participation	The applicant has never participated in the SoTL Manuscript Completion program.		The applicant has participated in a prior SoTL Manuscript Completion program.

	10 points		0 points
--	-----------	--	----------

Felten, P. (2013). Principles of good practice in SoTL. Teaching and Learning Inquiry, 1(1), 121–125. <https://doi.org/10.20343/teachlearningqu.1.1.121>