

KSU Programs Serving Minors Training

This training is provided and intended for use by Kennesaw State University employees and volunteers and personnel of third-party organizations using Kennesaw State University property for programs serving non-enrolled minors. It is derived from Georgia statutes as well as Board of Regents and Kennesaw State University policies and procedures.

Introduction

Kennesaw State University is committed to providing a safe environment for youth to grow, learn, and have fun while participating in University sponsored programs, or programs operated by third parties on KSU's campus. This training is provided to certain personnel who work with minors. It is our goal to balance the need to keep children safe with the need to nurture and care for children by engaging staff and volunteers in strategies for recognizing, preventing, and reporting child abuse and neglect.

This course is divided into four sections:

- A. KSU's Programs Serving Minors Policy
- B. B. Who is Affected (Exempt and Non-Exempt)
- C. C. Program Registry Review and Approval Process
- D. D. Program Requirements

KSU Programs Serving Minors Policy

- USG BOR Policy 12.9 (Programs Serving Minors) directs all USG schools to develop a Programs Serving Minors policy
- KSU Programs Serving Minors website:
protectingminors.kennesaw.edu
- Any Program involving non-enrolled minors must be registered and approved by KSU annually

Who is Affected?

Programs: Activities serving non-enrolled minors operated by KSU or Third Party Organizations in a KSU facility.

Exempt Activities:

- Activities on campus open to the general public where minors attend at discretion of parent/guardian
- Programs designed for enrolled University students
- Non-residential field trips to KSU supervised by a minor's school or organization
- Student recruitment activities that will last no longer than 1 day and do not include an overnight stay
- National tests offered by KSU Testing Center

Non-Exempt Activities:

- Sports camps
- Academic camps
- Workshops
- Mentoring activities
- Specific conferences
- Internships
- Research projects

Program Registry Review and Approval Process

Before the program activities involving the minors occur, the program must be submitted to the KSU Minors Program registry process for review and approval.

Exempt Activities utilizing KSU facilities must go through standard KSU review/approval procedures by Events, Legal, Risk/Insurance and Contracts.
